

Job Impact Statement (JIS):

The newly created specialized secure detention facilities are not expected to have a negative impact on the job market. There may be a positive impact resulting from the need to contract for construction to create specialized secure detention facilities and ongoing employment to staff and service such facilities.